MANY OFF FOR ATLANTIC CITY

Southern's Excursions Well Patronized.

Fully a Thousand People Take Advantage of Low Rate Offered To Visit Noted Seaside Resort—One Hundred and Fifty Greensboro People In the Number—Tickets Good For 15 Days.

Fully one thousand North Carolinians will be parading the board-walk at Atlantic City this afternoon. The much heralded and much advertised excursion from points in North Carolina on the Southern Railway pulled out last night and it required 27 cars to handle the people that desired to take advantage of the special reduced rates to the famous seaside resort. Three trains were operated, the first of nine cars, five of them being Pullman, was from Charlotte and in charge of Travelling Passenger Agent R. H. DeBatts and carried about three hundred excursionists. The second section was from Asheville and in charge of Passenger Agent C. W. Westbury and carried about two hundred and fifty passengers. The Greensboro section carried one hundred and fifty passengers from Greensboro proper and about the same number came up from Raleigh and from stations west of that city to Greensboro, and was in charge of Travelling Passenger Agent W. H. Parnell. Fully fifty people joined the excursionists at points between Greensboro and Danville.

At least half of the trippers will take advantage of the fifteen days time limit and deposit their tickets at Philadelphia and then visit New York, Niagara Falls and other northern cities. Some will even visit the Canadian cities.

The trains were admirably handled and moved without the slightest hitch, and all of the sections left Greensboro about on time. The excursionists are due in Atlantic City today between one and two o'clock.

The station and platform were crowded last night from nine o'clock until after the trains left with the people who were going away and with friends down to see them off and the ticket agents were hard worked in handling the large amount of extra business and still more arduous duty of answering the million and one questions that were put to them. But City Ticket Agent McGlamery and assistants handled the large crowd in a fine manner everyone receiving the very politest attention and business was transacted with them with the greatest possible dispatch.

Among the Greensboro people that left last night for the seaside were: Mr. Frank A. Brooks, Mr. C. W. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Causey, Mr. H. A. Grissom, Rev. W. L. Grissom, Mr. J. R. Cutchin, Mr. C. H. Dorsett, Mr. R. L. Justice, J. N. Hause, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson, Mr. J. W. Cone, Mr. C. C. McLean, Mrs. J. H. Phipps, Mr. Elmer Phipps, Miss Lena Coble, Mr. W. F. Hutton, Rev. W. P. Hutton, Mr. W. V. Peyer, Mr. W. F. Trogon, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Carter, Mr. T. A. McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McKnight and son, Mr. Howard Gardner and daughter, Miss Mary Milner, Mr. John M. Dick, Mr. J. Ed. Albright, Mrs. N. C. Weatherly, Mr. J. M. Simpson and brother, Mr. Ed. Simpson, of Atlanta, Mrs. Annie Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Minette, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hufnagel and daughter, Mr. Will Reynolds, Mr. W. B. Truitt, Mr. J. M. Haller, Mr. W. O. Donnell, Jr., and Mrs. W. O. Donnell, of Oak Ridge, Miss Margaret Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Mr. A. S. Hill, Mr. Cam L. Jenkins, Miss Aileen Hodgins, Miss Carrie Forbis, Mr. Jack Hodgins, Mrs. Henry Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pate, Miss Nellie Fowler, Mr. T. A. Walker, Miss Lalla Coble, Mr. W. R. Troxler, Mr. Maurice Stadiem, Miss Katie Stadiem.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for their kind assistance and sympathy during the sickness and death of our precious wife and mother, May God's richest blessings rest and abide with them is our prayer.

M. A. Holt and Family.

Be sure to see Little Misses Maud Clare Taylor and Mary Jean Rees in their beautiful skirt dance at the Baby Opera Wednesday evening, Aug. 24. At the Grand.

BEFORE JUDGE HOBGOOD.

Several Offenders Arraigned At Bar of Justice Yesterday.

Several offenders were arraigned at the bar of justice in Municipal Court, presided over by Capt. F. P. Hobgood, yesterday morning, but all of the cases were of little importance.

Robert Alexander, colored, was sentenced to the roads for ninety days on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Max Lefkowitz. The theft was committed some time ago. George Murphy, colored, was arraigned on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from the buggy of Mr. A. T. Whitsett and the evidence was pretty convincing. He was sentenced to 60 days in the workhouse, but in view of the fact that he did not seem competent to earn his salt he was given a chance to leave the city. If he is seen this morning the officers will dispatch him to the workhouse.

W. E. Holly was charged with assaulting his wife, but there was little or no evidence to this effect so the case was dismissed.

W. V. Carson and Clyde Payne, the latter colored, were arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct. Carson was fined $2.50 and costs, while Payne was required to pay into the county school fund the sum of $5 in addition to the costs.

McFADDEN'S FLATS.

At The Grand Last Night Was Pleading, Good Sized Audience For The Season.

"McFadden's Flats," a burlesque show in a mild form, all the objectionable features usually carried with burlesque shows being eliminated, was at the Grand last night and all things being considered, showed to a good sized audience.

The two midget comedians, Sullivan and Speck, were very funny and kept the audience in a good humor for the entire evening, while the chorus made up for what it lacked in beauty by its hard work and pretty costuming.

There were a number of features in the three acts and some very new song hits that were well received, the principal ones being "Gallager," by Mr. Joe Sullivan; "Shaky Eyes," by Miss Booroom and company; "Back to the Bleachers For Mine," by Miss Janette and chorus, Miss Annie Hart's specialty, the Yellow Kid specialty by Messrs. Sullivan and Speck, and the hit of the show was a topical song in the third act by Mr. Joe Sullivan and chorus.

WEDDING INVITATIONS.

Mr. Clarence A. Kriebbaum and Miss Clara Ernestine Ware To Wed.

Invitations reading as follows were issued yesterday:

"Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Ware request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Clara Ernestine, to Mr. Clarence Arthur Kriebbaum Tuesday evening, September sixth, nineteen hundred and ten, at eight o'clock, 508 Summit avenue, Greensboro, N. C."

Accompanying the invitations are cards reading as follows: "Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Ware invite you to the wedding reception of their daughter, Clara Ernestine, and Mr. Clarence Arthur Kriebbaum Tuesday evening, September sixth, nineteen hundred and ten, at eight thirty o'clock, 508 Summit avenue, Greensboro, N. C."

REVIVAL BEGINS TONIGHT.

At Asheboro Street Friends Meeting House—Chas. Hiatt In Charge.

Charles Hiatt, pastor-elect of the Friends' meeting at Long Beach, Calif., arrived last night to conduct evangelistic services for the Asheboro Street Friends meeting.

Beginning today there will be held week-morning sunrise prayer meetings, lasting a quarter of an hour and to open at 6:30. At three in the afternoon there is called a public session of the meeting on ministry and oversight.

The series of evangelistic meetings proper will begin tonight at 8:15. The public, especially those who have no church home in Greensboro, are heartily invited to attend.

The Helms vs. Holton Case.

In Guilford Superior Court yesterday afternoon the taking of testimony in the case of J. D. Helms vs. C. E. Holton was concluded and the argument of counsel was begun. The case will go to the jury some time this morning. The Supreme court settled several points when it sent the case back for a new trial and this fact caused some of the evidence to be cut out, thus making the trial somewhat shorter than on previous occasions.

Mr. L. C. F. Hambley, of Salisbury, is in the city for a few days.

OLD NEGROES BEING FLEECE

By Fellow Claiming to be Census Man.

Approached Number of Wake Negroes Who Were Formerly Slaves and Told Them There Was a Fund of $500 Each Awaiting Them—Collected Fee and Left—Charter Issued Yesterday—More Delegates.

Raleigh, Aug. 23.—It is learned that in the McCullers section of Wake county there passed through a few days ago some rascal who fleeced a number of credulous negroes out of small fees and is probably working some other section through which he is passing in the same way. He represented himself as being in the employ of the United States census-bureau getting a census of the ex-slaves who are fifty years old and older. He told them that there was a special fund provided by Congress out of which each ex-slave seventy years old now was to receive $500 and that those from fifty years old up to seventy was to have $350. He enrolled names, collected his fee and went his way. So far as is known there has been no official effort to track the rascal down.

There was only one charter today. The Rowan Chemical Co., Salisbury, was chartered with $50,000 capital authorized and $25,000 subscribed for general drug and chemical business. The incorporators are H. P. Brown and others, the largest stockholder being R. N. Rostbro, of Cleveland.

Many of the baseball fans here have been hopeful that a series of post-season games could be arranged between the East Carolina and the Carolina League teams but the movement has, it is learned, fallen through. The season of the East Carolina league is drawing to a close now. The season has proven nothing like as successful as it was hoped it would be. In fact every team has lost money, it is said.

Another batch of fourteen delegates to Third annual convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways convention at Providence, R. I., is announced by Private Secretary Alex J. Feild from the executive office of Governor Kitchin. They follow: C. A. Evans, Eric Norden; J. B. Mercer, W. M. Devine, Meares Harris, H. C. Smallbones, Capt. Edgar Williams, Joseph W. Little, Wilmington; Henry Station, Bethel; H. M. Jenkins, Washington; J. H. White, Elizabeth City; G. Herbert Smith, Crony; C. L. Duncan, Beaufort; Dr. William C. Stinson, Currituck. Heretofore the governor has appointed ninety six delegates and three special commissioners for this great deeper waterways meeting, a special social feature of which will be a great clam-bake after the manner of the most approved art of preparing a feast of this world-famed sort.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Mildred Chrismon Entertained Number of Friends Yesterday Afternoon.

Little Miss Mildred Chrismon delightfully entertained a number of her young friends yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chrismon, Percy street, the occasion being in the nature of a birthday party. The Chrismon home had been beautifully decorated. After numerous games were played refreshments were served.

Those present were Ellen Stone, Catherine Curry, Augusta Sapp, Mabel Landreth, Mary, Eva and Sanford Thomas, Mary and Elizabeth Minor, Mildred Matthews, Mozelle King, Mary Hendrix, Elizabeth Wilson, Katie and Margaret Thomas and Eunice Pearce.

In Honor of Miss Cutchin.

Miss Fannie Barringer delightfully entertained a few friends at her home on South Ashe street yesterday morning from 10:30 until 12:30 at a card party in honor of Miss Madeline Cutchin, of Wilson, the guest of Miss Ellen Cutchin. There were three tables and "hearts" were the feature of the morning. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns and roses. A delicious salad course was served to the guests. Miss Nelson Walsh was the fortunate one making the highest score and was awarded the prize.

Miss Vallie Sanders returned last night from a trip to Reidsville.

THE FOREST FIRES.

Death and Destruction Follow In Wake of Fire Demon In Western States—Three Hundred Unaccounted For.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 23.—Three hundred fire fighters of a total force of 600 which has been battling the flames in the burning white pine forest of northern Idaho, are unaccounted for today. Government Forest Supervisor W. R. Weigel, of Wallace, today declared his belief that nearly all had perished.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 23.—The forest fires have swept past Wallace. The towns of the Couer D'Alene district have passed the first stage of wild, unreasoning panic and have settled down with more or less composure to wait for the list of dead. The list is constantly growing as the forest rangers with red rimmed eyes and blackened faces penetrate the trails now choked with fallen logs and bring word of fire fighting crews cut off, camps wiped out, ranchers and homesteaders caught in the path of the flames, and mountain towns left in ashes.

That Elk City is still on the map and out of reach of the forest fires raving the surrounding country, which is ablaze for miles, is due solely to the heroism of the women of the town who, while the male population was fighting the advance of the conflagration, guarded their homes and the business houses, extinguishing a number of incipient blazes started by brands carried from the burning forests. Many of them stayed on roofs of the buildings all Saturday night.

The town is out of danger but the conditions in the surrounding regions are growing worse. The wind has risen again to a gale and adjacent mountains are seething masses of flames.

The entire Iron mountain is again ablaze, the fire on Squaw creek is burning with renewed fury.

The American river district is a gigantic furnace for miles. A number of outlying settlements from which the inhabitants have fled are certain of destruction and it is reported that the plant of the American Eagle mine, the largest in the district, is burning.

Scores of square miles of territory are involved and hundreds of men are wanted to assist in getting the conflagration under control. Conditions are epitomized in a brief message from Forest Ranger Porter, received yesterday afternoon by Assistant Ranger Brown at Granville.

It says: "Situation desperate. Whole country ablaze. Must have help to save property."

The first in the Clearwater reserve, according to advices received last night by Major Fenn, is absolutely beyond control and all hope of subduing the flames until it rains have been abandoned.

In Wallace the people have largely recovered from the shock of their narrow escape of Saturday.

The burned district, generally speaking, extends east to Missoula, north to the headwaters of the St. Joe and other directions, nobody knows how far. From the tops of the hills everything as far as the eye can see is swept bare. Until the forest rangers report at headquarters here, there will be no accurate estimates of the fire ravages.

A report from Wallace, received early this morning says:

The loss of life in the forest fires that swept over the Couer D'Alene region Saturday and Sunday is placed at 80 persons. Forestry officials received word that 34 fire fighters had burned to death at Big creek and 30 had met death on Superior lake.

Word came that 106 men near Avery, on the St. Joe river, had been burned, but a later report said that all but four came out safely. Six men were killed in the Placer creek fire, 3 miles from Wallace, 3 near Mullan and 3 at Wallace.

The whole country from here to the St. Joe river, 25 miles, has been burned over.

The loss at Wallace still stands at $1,000,000. One hundred buildings were destroyed. The hospitals are full of wounded, a number of them being blind.

Mr. M. C. Crawford Very Ill.

Mrs. John W. Crawford and son, Mr. George Crawford, went to High Point last night to see Mr. M. C. Crawford, who is very low with Bright's disease in the hospital at that place. Mr. Crawford is in a stupor and all hope for his getting better have been despaired of, it being only a question of time until he dies.

The little Novelty Dancers are simply fine. Little Margaret Seebey, Norciss McLean and Dorothy Stanley take this interesting part. At the Grand tonight.

CHAMPS WON YESTERDAY.

Defeated Spartanburg by Score of Four To Nothing—Other Games.

Yesterday at Spartanburg the Champs won easily, the final score being four to nothing. Eldridge did the twirling for the Champs and the Musicians could not strike a tune. The opposing slab artist was batted freely and the game came over in the right direction. The final game of the season with Spartanburg will be played this afternoon, after which the Champs will go to Anderson to meet the Electricians in the last series of the season between the two teams. The Greensboro lads are hopeful of taking the game this afternoon. Two games from Spartanburg and three or at least two from Anderson would give the Champs a big slide up the column and would practically insure their coming out of the cellar.

Greenville yesterday took the game from the Twins, by the score of five to one, thus pulling the Twins down the percentage column slightly. The two teams will meet in the final game of the season on the local grounds this afternoon.

Charlotte yesterday took the second game from Anderson by the score of 6 to 2. This gives Charlotte a lead of four games over the Electricians, who are working for second place. The Champs hope to hold the Anderson boys down the rest of the week, while they also hope that Charlotte will handle Spartanburg and Winston well.

Yesterday's Results.

Greenville 5, Winston 1.
Charlotte 6, Anderson 2.
Spartanburg 0, Greensboro 4.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

ASSAULTED HIS WIFE.

Because Spouse Would Not Cook His Breakfast Charles Blaylock, Colored, Is In Jail.

Charles Blaylock, an aged negro, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of assaulting his wife, Epie, and was locked up to await a hearing before Judge Hobgood this morning. Charles when brought to the police station coolly informed the chief that he was subject to certain kinds of fits, whereupon he was pointed to a seat in the far corner of the room. He then stated that he could not hear well on account of his affliction and the officers were compelled to allow him to come closer while they questioned him regarding the assault.

Blaylock first stated that the trouble occurred because his wife would not cook his breakfast and he had to eat "bread and lasses" and drink water. At dinner things did not look any better, but he merely sang a song. He then began to tell of wanting to sew buttons on his clothes and "his woman" would not allow him to get a needle and he slapped her only after she had gotten the axe to defend her sewing supplies.

It appears that Blaylock's mind is somewhat affected and while harmless and good natured at times he occasionally gets dangerous. He has the appearance of being a hard working negro and is no doubt a good hand when his mind is working right.

Marriage At Haw River.

Mr. George Crutchfield, of Winston-Salem, passed through the city yesterday en route to Haw River where he will be married today to Miss Hattie Bradshaw. Both the bride and groom are deaf and dumb and the wedding ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. A. Dailey, of East Durham, Mr. E. McK. Goodwin, superintendent of the State School for the Deaf at Morganton, will act as the interpreter. Immediately after the wedding the young couple will leave for a bridal trip to Durham to attend the convention for the deaf. Mr. Newman Pike, of this city, left yesterday to attend the marriage.

Mr. J. R. Cutchin left last night for Atlantic City and from there will go to Waterbury, Conn., to visit his son, Mr. Clarence I. Cutchin.

Remember the ladies of the Christian church will have a lawn party on Thursday evening on the lawn at Mrs. R. S. Petty's, 818 Walker avenue. Delicious cream and cake will be served in abundance and a fine time is assured all who attend. Come out, walk or ride, plenty of room to leave your vehicles and motors. Come even though you can't stay long.

MORE TEACHERS CAME YESTERDAY

Others Will Probably Come in Today.

Institute Will Be Moved To State Normal College on Account of Large Attendance.—Lindsay Street School Building Too Small to Accommodate the Teachers—The Sessions Full of Interest—The New Arrivals.

On account of the unlooked for attendance at the Guilford County Teachers' Institute the remaining sessions will be held in the McIver Science Building at the State Normal and Industrial College, the Lindsay street school building, which has been used by the institute for years past, being entirely too small to accommodate the large number of teachers here to attend the institute. The enrollment yesterday reached 168 and the number is still increasing.

Teachers are here from Elizabeth City on the east to Forsyth and other counties on the west. And the attendance is not confined to residents of the State, there being teachers from other states. The fame of Guilford as an educational center is known far and wide and teachers forego the convenience of attending institutes at home and come here at great expense in order to take advantage of the instruction given here by able educators. And no doubt the mention of the fact that a teacher attended an institute in Guilford would serve as a sort of passport into numerous schools in the State.

While the rooms were crowded considerably yesterday the teachers took deep interest in the work and with the more adequate accommodations at the Normal the work will progress more satisfactorily and the teachers will be able to gather more ideas from the conductors. The sessions each day will be from 9:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.

Following is a list of those who arrived yesterday, together with the address of each teacher.

Corrie Kenley, Guilford College; Frank W. Kurfess, Greensboro, Route No. 2; Chas. H. Wenhold, Jr., Walkertown; D. E. Highfill, Rainsboro, Route No. 1; Clifton Chamberlain, Yadkinville; Olive Pritchett, Brown Summit; W. M. Brookbank, Kernersville, Route No. 3; Hattie Webb, Brown Summit; Cletus Burgess, High Point; Daisy Richardson, Snow Camp; Nora McCollum, Summerfield; Araminta Hester, Greensboro; Emily F. Brown, Chocowinity, (Beaufort Co.); Almyda Coleman, Danville, Va.; Vannie Fryar, McLeansville; Nellie D. Doak, Guilford College; Mary Willis McCulloch, Greensboro; Daphne Bowman, Liberty; L. Kathleen Hall, Greensboro.

THAT SUB-STATION.

Chamber of Commerce Has Taken Matter Up With Southern Power Company.

Secretary McLean, of the Chamber of Commerce, was seen yesterday regarding the proposed sub-station of the Southern Power Company, the site of which is to soon be decided upon. Secretary McLean stated he had taken the matter up with the officials of the company several days ago, requesting that a date be fixed on which a committee from Greensboro could call on the officials in Charlotte and set forth some of the reasons why the plant should be located here. No answer had been received yesterday, it being probable that the official to whom the letter was addressed was out of the city at the time.

Secretary McLean stated that every effort would be made to secure the plant for the city and he believed that the company would decide in favor of Greensboro. At any rate the Chamber of Commerce is going to do its part to induce the company to locate here, Mr. McLean added.

Before Judge Collins.

Mack Harris, colored, was before Judge Collins yesterday morning charged with carrying concealed weapons and with an assault on his spouse. For the assault he was taxed $5 and the costs and on the charge of carrying concealed weapons he was bound over to the Municipal court.

SHE SMILED BOTH AT MOON AND POLICEMAN.

For She Was Only A Baby Girl Unconscious of the Fact She Had Been Abandoned.

New York World.
Policeman Oppenheimer of the East Thirty-fifth street station saw in the moonlight about 2 a. m. yesterday a small bundle on the doorstep of No. 3 Park avenue, a brownstone front house occupied by Mrs. Frank B. Porter. In the bundle Oppenheimer found a baby girl about six weeks old. She was contentedly sucking her fingers and smiled pleasantly at the moon and the policeman.

Oppenheimer took the infant to the East Thirty-fifth street station, whence she was sent to Bellevue and placed on the same cot with the baby boy found Saturday night on Mercer street. The hospital nurses say the two are the prettiest foundlings ever brought to Bellevue.

The baby was well dressed. Pinned to her clothing was a not reading: "Her name is Mary. He is baptism. Good luck."

At the Porter home it was said that a woman about twenty years old had been seen to pass the house several times yesterday and peer in. It was surmised that she might be the baby's mother desirous of learning whether the child had been taken in by the occupants of the house.

YEGGMEN UNUSUALLY BUSY.

From Paradise They Moved to Hope, Taking $180 in Stamps.

Kansas City Times.
"Yeggmens" are giving the postoffice inspectors a lot of trouble these days. Usually it is late fall or winter before postoffice robberies begin, but this summer they have been numerous.

"It's hard to account for," J. P. Johnston, inspector in charge, said this morning. "One explanation is that the weather last winter was too severe for these thieves to operate comfortably."

The postoffice at Paradise, Kansas, was robbed Sunday night of $130 in stamps and $113. From Paradise the gang went on to Hope, Kan., and took $180 in stamps. The latest report was received this morning from Burchard, Neb. The postoffice was robbed last night. The telegram did not say how much in stamps or money was taken.

The High Cost "Grace."

A young lady who taught a class of small boys in the Sunday school desired to impress on them the meaning of offering thanks before a meal. Turning to one of the class, whose father was a deacon in the church she asked him: "William, what is the first thing your father says when he sits down to the table?"

"He says, 'Go slow with the butter, kids; it's 40 cents a pound,'" replied the youngster.—Grit.

GETTING MORE LIVE STOCK ON YOUR FARM.

Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

The plant feeds on the soil, the animal feeds on the plant, and the fertility goes back to the soil. This is the Almighty's trinity—the plant, the animal, the soil—over and over again in unending cycles, if the earth is to be kept fruitful. Any sort of farming that tries to exist with only two of the three—the soil and the plant—flies in the face of Nature and of Providence and can only end in failure and in poverty. And true as this is for other sections, it is even truer for the South. A Western farmer, whose land is rich may grow live stock if he chooses. It's a matter of choice with him. But the Southern farmer whose land is poor must grow live stock if he is to prosper. It's a matter of necessity with him.

Doubtless you do not wish to go into general stock raising now. Mr. Average Farmer, but you ought to have more hogs than you are raising. There's a market for pork and bacon—and ham prices are out of sight—and more money in hogs than in cotton.

You ought to have more cattle, too. Our average farmers in the South don't keep even half as many milk cows as they should, to say nothing of market cattle. Milk and butter makes up about the cheapest as well as the most healthful of food products, and a farmer should be ashamed to be without an abundance of either.

Then we ought to have more horses—more horses to work improved farm machinery, and more brood mares to raise high-priced colts. Our average farm worker in the South is using only one-fourth or one-fifth as much horse power as the average farm worker in the West.

So let's not try to deceive ourselves into thinking it is not practicable to get more stock on our farms. We shall fail about as badly as we do trying to deceive Nature with a soil-plant team.

Pew Southern farmers after full investigation will deny the advisability of getting more hogs, more cattle, and in most cases more horses, for their farms. Make up your mind then to begin adding these until you have a properly stocked plantation—and the best stock, too. Work away from scrubs just as rapidly but steadily as possible.

She Took the Right Way

By MOLLIE K. WETHERELL

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

George Atwood was an orphan who did not remember father or mother. He lived with an uncle till that uncle died. At this time George was seventeen years old and wished to go to college, but, not knowing of any means to pay his way, was about to give it up when, the day after his uncle's funeral, he received notice from a law firm that they would pay him $1,200 a year until he was twenty-one.

This surprised him. He visited the lawyers in question, but they gave him no satisfaction concerning the source of the money they paid him except that it came from a fund left by his father for his education. He went to college and graduated when he was within a few months of coming of age.

The day he left college, while wondering what work to take up, he received a letter from an aunt whom he had never seen or heard of, telling him that he was to come to live with her. Here was another surprise. It seemed that fate was ready to take care of him, but was not inclined to give him any information ahead as to what would be done with him. He had now reached an age when he felt competent to take care of himself, but he did not have any profession or position. So he concluded to call on this aunt. He did so and found her a sister of his mother.

"Where is your baggage?" she asked.

"At my lodgings."

"Send for it."

"See here, aunt; I'm getting tired of being provided for in this mysterious fashion. Tell me all about it."

"Certainly. Your mother died when you were in infancy, and your father soon followed her. They arranged for your future the day you were born. All the steps have been provided for, even as to a wife."

"A wife? Well, I like that! I shall marry whom I choose."

"That remains to be seen. It is the affair of your parents and of yourself. It does not concern me whom you marry except as regards one person. I have living with me an adopted daughter. You will be under the same roof with her and will consequently see a great deal of her. Therefore I warn you to be careful not to fall in love with her."

"Is she of royal blood?"

"Ask no questions, but do as I say."

George met Miss Harwood the same evening at dinner. She was dressed in mourning, which was very becoming to a fair complexion and hair so light that it was almost white. Her eye was a liquid brown.

"Fate," George remarked to himself, "has been kind to me, but I fear that in throwing me in the way of this girl, whom I am not to love, she has done me sufficient harm to make up for all her benefits. I suppose I shall conceive a craze for her simply because I am forbidden to do so. I wonder who has been provided for me. Ten to one she is homely and otherwise unattractive."

What was his surprise to find after becoming on intimate terms with Rebecca Harwood to hear from her that her aunt before his arrival had warned her against him as she had warned him against her. His aunt had told her that there was a business in which she (Miss Harwood) was half owner and the owner of the other half was the son of her father's partner. Her father, who had recently died, had arranged that she should marry this son and that he should conduct the business owned by the two.

So that was the reason why George was not to fall in love with Rebecca. What the deuce did his aunt mean—such being the case—by bringing him under the same roof with the young heiress? Not only did she do this, but he had not been in the house three days before she took herself off somewhere, leaving him and Rebecca alone in the house, chaperoned by an old woman housekeeper. He had nothing to do, no one to talk to but Rebecca. One might as well have put a savor, dish before a hungry man and tell him not to eat it.

The result was that Rebecca and George fell desperately in love with each other and the day his aunt was to return walked off together and were married. They sent her a telegram announcing that they had spoiled the plans fate had laid for Rebecca and wished to know what next they should do. George certainly did not expect his aunt to have any consideration for him thereafter.

An answer to the dispatch was received as follows:

"Come home."

They took the next train, and when they arrived the aunt met them in the hall.

"It's all your fault, aunt," George hurried to say. "You had no business to throw us together."

"Of course it's my fault, and I took pains that it should be my fault. Now listen. You are the children of two partners who wished you to marry and selected me to make a match between you. How could I do so better than by leaving you together and telling you that you were each destined for some one else? George, you will be of age in a few weeks, when you are to begin to learn the business you are to conduct."

Considering that I was left an orphan I think my affairs were well managed for me by my parents. Efforts to produce such results are usually failures.

It begins to look as if Vice President Sherman will prove as inconvenient a "friend" to the President as one Ballinger has proved and is proving.

The number of people who went on the Southern's annual excursion to Atlantic City would seem to indicate that there is some considerable life left in the old land yet.

"Getting More Live Stock On Your Farm" is the subject of an article copied in today's paper from the Progressive Farmer. Our farmer readers will perhaps find in it something of value.

Just as was to be expected things have worked out, or been worked out, so that Roosevelt could go to the Republican State convention in New York State. Things have to be mighty awkward indeed to keep Teddy out of a Republican convention, no matter what its importance, so there is any excuse whatever for his being there.

The New York Sun, independent Republican, says that for ten years there has been in New York State no real or self-respecting Republican party. The New York World, independent Democratic, says the same thing of the Democratic party of the Empire State. We don't believe a political party could be fashioned that would please either of the two papers mentioned.

The Republican party has just changed bosses—that's all. The Durham Herald says:

If there was anything at that convention that did not go as Mr. Morehead wanted it to go nothing has been said about it.

And the same thing will be true in many another instance. Indeed, the Republican party is so accustomed to being bossed that it really looks for that sort of thing.

President Taft has made it plain that he was not responsible for the humiliation of ex-President Roosevelt involved in the latter's defeat for the temporary chairmanship of the Republican State convention of New York. This seems to put all the trouble up to "Dollar Jim" Sherman. And that there is trouble and that too of a serious nature is not to be doubted. Mr. Roosevelt's friend Griscom has taken occasion to say some harsh things about the so-called "old guard" and it is not to be supposed that they will fail to show resentment.

The Hon. Moses Harshaw is quoted as interpreting the "local self-government" plank in the Republican platform as applying to the whiskey question. The Shelby Aurora, Republican, denies that it has any connection whatsoever with the question of prohibition. The idea of the adroit plank, as every one knows, was to deceive the voters just as they preferred to be deceived. There is an interpretation to fit the likings of each community, as our Republican friends are already demonstrating.—Charlotte News.

There is one class of people who need not be deceived by this intentionally deceptive plank. We refer to the friends of prohibition. The crowd that is in control of the Republican party now is as friendly to "booze" as it dares. In the inconceivable event of the Republican party gaining control of the Legislature, everybody knows that practically anything the liquor interests wanted done would be done. The liquor plank in the Republican platform is not, in fact, deceptive, or it should deceive no one, but it was so drawn as to lend itself readily to the adroit manipulation of the politician.

No present day fact is more agreeable than the splendid victory which has won by science against disease. We have often had occasion to comment on the progress of medicine and surgery for it is a most pleasant and suggestive theme. A recent article prepared by the State Board of Health (a most serviceable and useful part of the State government, by the way) gives some late information on the victories to which we are referring. For instance, it says that the mortality from diphtheria, once one of the most dreaded of diseases, has been reduced since 1895, 80 per cent. This is little short of wonderful. Speaking of typhoid fever, the circular says that the mortality has been reduced 33 per cent in forty years. In some cities the typhoid mortality has been increased as much as 98 per cent, indicating that the fighting of typhoid is largely a matter of sanitation. The circular continues, and it is every word a message of hope and good cheer:

"Tuberculosis, certainly the greatest disease problem before the world, is yielding just in proportion to the extent of the educational campaign waged against it. For example, in Germany, with its present rate of decrease continuing thirty years, the disease will be exterminated."

During the last half century the mortality from consumption or tuberculosis among the English-speaking people has dropped 49 per cent. In England and Wales from 1870 to 1906 the mortality was reduced about 60 per cent. Should the present rate of decrease in England continue forty years, that country will be free from the disease.

Prussia, in the twenty years between 1886 and 1906, has reduced her tuberculous death rate about 45 per cent.

In five Eastern States and ten cities of the United States the tuberculous mortality has been reduced 18 per cent since 1887. Massachusetts, the foremost State in the Union in public-health work, has reduced her tuberculous death rate 63 per cent during the last fifty years.

SAYS GUM RUNS THE MACHINE.

Mother-in-Law's Jaws Work Churn, Too, Asserts Nebraskan Genius.

New York World.
"By a system of differential pulleys and strings I have devised a scheme to make my wife's jaws do useful work when she chews gum," said a man who averred he was J. Montgomery Gubbins of Omaha, Neb., yesterday afternoon in the Grand Central Station.
"With this device attached to her jaws," he continued, "my wife runs her sewing machines and thoroughly enjoys herself while doing so. I invented this simple machine because my wife has rheumatism in both ankles and has a stiff wrist. With a similar machine I have set my mother-in-law to work running a churn. It takes more power to run a churn than it does a sewing machine. I came East to look over the field with the view of trying my invention on the New York public if I found gum chewing popular."

"I am highly pleased with what I found, and I know I'll have tremendous sales of this machine when I return to New York. I found the biggest number of gum chewers among the subway travellers. I'm sure they will jump at the chance to buy my invention when they find I've got an attachment that will provide fresh air as the traveller works his jaws."

MR. COUCH'S FUNERAL.

Remains To Be Interred At Jennings, Iredell County, Today.

The funeral of Mr. Jas. A. Couch, who killed himself in Richmond Monday morning, will be held from Zion church in Jennings, Iredell county, today.

The remains were taken through Greensboro yesterday morning en route to Jennings.

As yet there is no explanation of the action of Mr. Couch in taking his life. It is believed that the letter written to his wife just before the fatal shot was fired will throw some light on the tragedy, but the corner deemed it advisable to not open the letter until Mrs. Couch returned to Richmond.

In addition to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Couch, of Jennings, the deceased is survived by his wife and four children and the following brothers and sisters: Mr. Chas. S. Couch and Mrs. R. M. Those contemplating matrimony will please take notice that the National Housefurnishing Goods Show is now running at the Garden.

Probably the patent sweeping machines are attracting more attention than anything else this year. Last season the vacuum cleaning outfits were just getting out of their swaddling clothes.

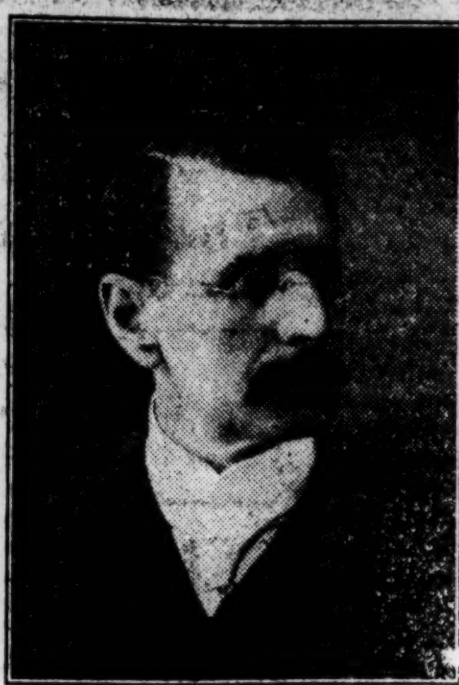

This season there are not less than six different vacuum cleaners on exhibition, all the way from the humble hand machine, which the young housewife must pump with one hand while she guides the suction rod with the other, to the gorgeous electric affair with a receiver as large as a flour barrel, and a suction that will remove a roll of bills from a husband's pocket at a distance of 10 paces.

The hot and cold water bottles are running them a close second for numbers of exhibits and interested bystanders. No more need the young husband, arising at the unholly hour of 4 a. m., to go to his daily toil, howl because he has no coffee, with his setout breakfast. No, indeed! All wife has to do is to boil the coffee the night before and cork it up in a vacuum bottle. It is estimated that these fascinating double bottles will preserve half the nation its beauty sleep in the morning.

Then there is a remarkable washline pulley which save leaning out of the window, prevents strain on the arm sagging of the line and other household calamities. It operates by a wheel, and is guaranteed to snatch in a line coated with ice as easily as one hung out on a spring morning.

There is a new patent ice-cream freezer, which fills a long-felt want. It guarantees to make good ice cream in less than five minutes, and by an ingenious contrivance of wheels and cords and things, it does half the turning itself, while a wire screen, surrounding the cream receptacle, keeps the ice from touching it, and makes turning the freezer child's play.

The automatic silver-plating machine does everything but furnish the silver to buy it with, and is invaluable when the young wife finds the wedding presents turning a trifle brown in spots.

A Pleasant Outlook.
"I wonder why the bride is crying," remarked one of the guests at the wedding. "Can it be because she is leaving home?"

"No, it ain't that," answered the bride's small brother. "She's in love with the fellow she married, and I think she's crying 'cause she feels sorry for him."

THE BOSS OF ALL THE BOSSES.

Lincoln Steffens Finds Morgan Practically Recognized as an American Sovereign in Wall Street.

It is said in Wall Street that one man is supreme down there now. If that is so, it is time to talk business. We have been neglecting business; we have been paying too much attention to politics; all of us have; the American people. And the cost of living is but a part of the price we shall have to pay for our absorption in our public affairs. It is true we have something to show for it; there's a balance to our credit: We are beginning to understand politics. Even our politicians are beginning to understand politics a little. And their lessons should not be interrupted. But our public business isn't our only business. We all have our private business also to attend to, and if one man dominates that, it means that the boss has developed in business as well as in politics. And if that is so, it is high time to understand business; it is time even for business men to understand business.

For if Mr. J. P. Morgan is the boss of Wall Street, it means that those forces which are suppressing competition and centralizing financial power in this country have come to a head. Not to their end. Competition isn't all over yet; not by a long way. There are some independents left even in oil. But if the leaders of the great financial groups that have formed the fighting oligarchy of national business have seen the community of their interests, and are submitting to the leadership of one of them, then the centripetal forces of American industry have come to a focus; to a head, to a head that wears a face and has a soul. And, if that is so, the United States has, at last, a personal sovereign.

If Mr. Morgan merges in his person the merger of mergers, he personifies the national organization of American business: Business, to which there is reason to believe a business people pay more loyal allegiance than they do to their political establishment. And, if that is true, if this man represents the financial power which controls the railroads and other public service corporations; the trusts, banks, insurance companies, trust companies and other special interests, he represents those powers which—even before they were united—supported, defended, and controlled political parties and bosses, and, therefore, rivalled the power of mayors and councils, governors and legislatures, the President and the Congress of the United States. In other words, if this Wall Street rumor is true; if Mr. Morgan is supreme there; if he is the boss of the bosses in Wall Street who boss the business bosses back of the political bosses all over the United States, then J. Pierpont Morgan is the boss of the United States.

And it is true. Not only the newspapers and the comic weeklies, not only the rumor-mongers uptown and the curb-gossips downtown—big men say so: fighting financiers and conservative bankers, captains of industry, speculative operators, and corporation attorneys; men who know; men who helped to make it so; men who would like to help make it not so. Everybody I talked with confirmed the rumor. Some approved, others deplored, a few resented; they all minimized and, nevertheless, many were genuinely alarmed at the belittled fact. But nobody denied it. Not a man in Wall Street contradicted the report that Mr. Morgan was "it down there now."—Lincoln Steffens in the September Everybody's.

Statement From a Number of Colored Baptist Churches.

At a recent meeting of the Baptist Ministers and Deacons Union of Greensboro, the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas the general public is ignorant of the truth in regard to the so-called mission or would be Baptist church on East Market street, and its relation to the other Baptist churches of the city; be it resolved that we publish the following facts: (1) That there has been no split in either Mt. Sinai or Providence Baptist churches. (2) That Providence Baptist church excluded from its fellowship the following persons, Bros. A. S. Foster, William Gregory and Ernest Curry. These all having refused absolutely to be governed by the authority of said church. And Mt. Sinai Baptist church withdrew fellowship from Prof. H. H. Falkner and Bro. R. T. Jennings on account of their failure to be governed by the jurisdiction of that church. (3) These excluded persons have taken it upon themselves to establish what purports to be a Baptist church, a thing, the absurdity of which can be readily seen by all who are familiar with Baptist polity. This so-called mission was conceived in the spirit of revenge and is fostered by a feeling that is wholly antagonistic to law and order respecting church regulation. We further state that none of these persons have put forth any effort to set themselves right with their churches.

We trust that these statements may serve as a warning to all ministers and other religious persons who are lovers of law and order in the promotion of Christ's kingdom.

Churches represented: Shiloh, Providence, New Light, Mt. Zion, Cedar Grove, Mt. Sinai, New Zion.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident, that if no money is put out for stationery, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

A POOR JUMP.

It Came Near Being the Death of Isabeau, the Painter.

Napoleon Bonaparte, as is well known, was in the habit of walking with his arms crossed upon his chest and his head slightly bent forward. Isabeau, the painter, was at Malmesbury, and he and some of the first consul's aids-de-camp were having a game of leapfrog on the lawn. Isabeau had already jumped over the heads of most of them when at the turning of a path he espied the last player, who, in the requisite position, seemed to be waiting for the ordeal. Isabeau pursued his course without looking, but took his flight so badly as only to reach the other's shoulders, and both rolled over and over in the sand.

To Isabeau's consternation, his supposed fellow player turned out to be Bonaparte, who got up, foaming at the mouth with anger, and, drawing his sword, pounced upon the unfortunate artist. Isabeau, luckily for himself, better at running than at leaping, took to his heels and, jumping the ditches dividing the property from the highroad, got over the wall and never stopped until, breathless, he reached the gates of the Tuileries.

Isabeau, it was added, went immediately to Mme. Bonaparte's apartments, and she, after having laughed at the mishap, advised him to lie low for a little while.

THE ADAM'S APPLE.

An Important Organ That Helps to Protect the Brain.

One of the most remarkable pieces of mechanism in the human system, a device which anticipated several of our modern patents, is the Adam's apple, which for ages physicians considered a sort of freak of nature without any material use in the human economy. But how differently this little device is considered today!

If we had no Adam's apple there would have been more deaths from apoplexy and brain disorder than ever chronicled in history. Instead of being a useless organ this article serves as an important storage system to protect the brain.

For instance, when we are excited or too animated the heart pumps the blood up to the brain a little too fast, and if it could not be stopped by some automatic device death or brain disease would follow. The Adam's apple is the blood storage cistern which intercepts the rapid flow and holds the surplus blood.

Again, if the supply from the heart runs short and the brain is likely to suffer from an insufficient supply the storage cistern gives up its surplus of blood. Thus this organ acts automatically to check and increase the flow of the blood to the brain, protecting that organ from damage through our temporary excesses.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Best Hour of Life

They Have a Definite Purpose.

Foley's Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rose Glaser, Terre Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a serious case of kidney trouble and spending much money for so called cures, I found Foley Kidney Pills the only medicine that gave me a permanent cure. I am again able to be up and attend to my work. I shall never hesitate to recommend them." Holton Drug Co.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Many a man gives the devil his due who isn't so charitable with his neighbor.

The love of money that is the root of all evil is really the love of other people's.

No man thoroughly believes in himself unless he has full confidence in his digestion.

There seems to be quite a difference between beginning at the bottom and getting in on the ground floor.

Manager—"In the last act of your musical comedy we should introduce a detective." Author—"What for?" Manager—"To unearth the plot."

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the six month whether albumenous or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go but the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney troubles the last census year over nine-tenths of them (59,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease" although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as and called it "kidney trouble" when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

There never was one until Fulton worked out his Renal emollient (Fulton's Renal Compound.)

Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albumenous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields.

If you have had kidney trouble over six months no matter what you call it is the only hope. Efficiency 87 per cent where patients do not wait until bedridden although some of them recover. It can be had in Greensboro at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

WILL TRY TO END THE DRUGGING OF BABIES.

Dr. Lederle of Board of Health Wants to Restrict the Sale of Paregoric and Laudanum.

New York World.

President Lederle of the Board of Health wants to lessen the use of paregoric and laudanum, while he is fighting to stop the promiscuous use of harmful drugs, and is considering the advisability of advocating a prohibition of their sale except upon prescription.

"I want to get some expressions of opinion on the subject from households," he said yesterday.

"Notwithstanding their dangerous nature the sale of these drugs for the relief of minor troubles is enormous.

"Many mothers keep paregoric on tap and are more careful to have it in their homes than they are to see that their sugar bowls are filled," Dr. Lederle said. "At the first sign of an ache or pain, and often the moment the baby cries, the mother dashes for the paregoric bottle. As a result the baby is drugged, and drugged unnecessarily."

It is the contention of many physicians that babies in their cradles contract drug habits through taking "baby syrups," "soothing syrups," "colic cures" and "infants' friends," which contain opium, morphine, heroin, a derivative of morphine, chloroform or chloral. Mothers give these remedies without thought; the baby goes to sleep, and not infrequently it never awakens.

No Sympathy for the Guilty.

"It really hurts our fathers when they have to lick us," said the first boy. "Well," replied his companion, after a moment's reflection, "they will do it, so let 'em suffer."—The Widow.

Struck a Rich Mine.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney Trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility. 25c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

SOWING HIS WILD OATS.

Nights of Wasteful Debauchery That Wore Him Out.

"Yes, I'm dissipating too much," said the red faced rustic as he rubbed his head despondently.

"Dissipating?" gasped his friend. "That's the word I used. You've heard that expression about 'burning life's candle at both ends?' Well, that's my case exactly. To tell the truth, I have been having too gay a time. Last night I went down to the Blue Moon and drank a soda. Then some traveling man offered me a cigar. Of course I had to take it."

"You don't mean it?" "I mean just what I say. Then I bought a ham sandwich. I ate it and actually forgot myself and took another. On my way home I dropped into the church social for a few minutes. Some of the young ladies made me try the 'peuny dip,' and I drew a blank."

"Such extravagance!" "That's exactly it. Extravagance and dissipation will kill me. It was 9 o'clock before I reached home."

"Nine o'clock!" "Yes, I must be sowing my wild oats. Well, I've finished now. Night before last I called on my girl. She wouldn't let me leave until I had taken her out and bought chocolate creams. Talk about pleasure hunting! I'm simply worn out after these nights of wasteful debauchery."—Pearson's Weekly.
